

So, you've attended the Hire Me SC Employer Summit.

Attending the summit means you are one step closer to strengthening your workforce by including individuals with disabilities. Now, it's time to continue your journey toward building a more inclusive workplace.

What are my next steps?

Attend "Engaging the Untapped Workforce" employer trainings

Connect with vendors and job candidates

Improve your company's accessibility by consulting Able Access

Become a South Carolina Business Coalition member

The Business Coalition is an employer-led, business-to-business collaboration to improve business outcomes through inclusive employment practices of people with disabilities.

We hold meetings for prospective and current members frequently — connect with us on the Hire Me SC website to join.

Here are a few of our business partners:
