

HIRE ME SC

A photograph of a man with a beard and short hair, wearing a light blue polo shirt and dark pants, sitting in a wheelchair. He is smiling and looking towards the camera. The background shows a park-like setting with trees and a large tree trunk to the right. The wheelchair has 'Systems Center Atlanta' written on it.

I will not become an unemployment statistic.

Hire Me SC promotes a culture of inclusion across the state of South Carolina, one in which equal employment for all individuals — whether they have a disability or not — is the norm rather than the exception.

Real Individuals with disabilities. Real messages.

My message for those making hiring decisions is simple. As an employer, please don't make assumptions about a person's ability."

Why Hire Me SC Exists

Individuals with disabilities in South Carolina work in settings where they may earn less than $1 per hour.

Source: United States Department of Labor, Community Rehabilitation Programs List

Individuals with disabilities are unemployed.

Source: 2017 Annual Disability Statistics Compendium

People with disabilities are

2x

more likely to be unemployed than people without disabilities.

Source: 2017 Annual Disability Statistics Compendium

How You Can Make a Difference

Whether you are a job seeker, an employer, a service provider, an education professional, or someone looking to learn more—we've got the resources you need to help you advocate for an inclusive employment model for all in your community.

Contact us at hiremesc@able-sc.org
Visit hiremesc.org to learn more

Share your story using the hashtag #HireMeSC

Tag @HireMeSC on Facebook and Twitter

Tag @hire_me_sc on Instagram